Twas Great Day For Old Ireland

Chicago, Aug. 26 .- John F. Finnerty, the president of the United Irish League, of America, has issued an adaress regarding the "land bill victory," in which he says:

Ireland, in the passage of the land urchase bill, has achieved a brilliant and also a substantial victory; but the reatest victory is yet to be won. As the commercial reforms of 1780 precedd the independent Irish Parliament of 1782, so does the land purchase bill stand as the precursor of the restoraon of that Parliament (with up tocate reforms), so infamously destroyed by England in 1800. I am in principie an Irish Separatist, and will no re-main to the last; but I recognize the benefit that must come to Ireland by the presence of a native Legislature; making laws for the Irish nation in Dublin or some other great city of the island. Total separation would call for an Irish fleet, an Irish army, an Itish treasury overflowing with golden millions, and at least one powerful ally like France, Germany or Amreica I will leave to the judgment of my felow countrymen and fellow citizens how soon all these requirements are either probable or possible in Ireland. The alternative of an independent Par-
